Facts about Kenya

Kenya is a country in the continent of Africa.

The capital city of Kenya is Nairobi.

Kenya has two seasons - wet and dry. The weather in Nairobi is warm and humid.

Many tourists travel to Kenya to see wild animals in the country's national parks such as the Maasai Mara National Park.

Tea and coffee and flowers, such as roses, are important plants grown in Kenya which they export to the United Kingdom and other countries.

Kenya's long distance runners have won many medals at the Olympic Games.
