

Progression of knowledge in French at The Welbeck Federation

Key Area	EYFS	Y1	Y2	Y3	Y4	Y5	Y6
Speaking	Know that a word can be spoken in another language	Know that words can be spoken in other languages	Know that words can be pronounced differently in other languages	Know that words have sound patterns	Know that knowledge of sounds is used to pronounce words and phrases	Know that simple statements are made, and familiar questions can be asked and answered, with intonation	Know that conversations involve seeking and giving information.  Know that language can be varied to produce extended verbal responses
Listening	Know that the sound of a spoken word can be heard in another language	Know that the sounds of spoken words can be heard in another language	Know that different sounds of spoken words can be heard in different languages	Know that familiar spoken words in another language can be listened to and understood	Know that listening for familiar words and short phrases enables understanding and appropriate responses  Know that listening carefully to a text when it is being read enables the listener to follow accurately	Know that identifying key words and familiar phrases enables the listener to understand and respond to short spoken material  Know that listening attentively to more complex words, phrases and sentences from a text enables understanding	Know that listening to longer and more complex phrases enables the listener to understand the main points and details in short spoken material  Know that listening to passages spoken with authentic pronunciation, intonation and at authentic speed is realistic diction
Reading	Know that a written word has phonemes	Know that there are written words which look similar to our country's main language	Know that written words often look different in another language from our	Know that phonics knowledge is applied to read familiar single words	Know the meaning of some written simple phrases and sentences containing familiar words	Know that careful reading enables understanding of familiar words and phrases, and context and cognates are	Know and understand main points and details in short written material which include familiar

		and another language	country's main language			used to work out the meaning of unfamiliar words	and unfamiliar words and phrases
Writing	Know that a word can be written in our country's main language and in another language	Know that words can be written in a our country's main language and in a similar way in another language	Know that words can be written using a different script and in different ways in other languages	Know familiar words written from memory  Know that grammar is word pattern	Know familiar words and short phrases written from memory  Know that grammar is word pattern and varies between languages	Know short phrases and sentences in everyday conversations written from memory  Know that grammar is used to arrange familiar words into short sentences	Know short texts about familiar topics written and adapted from memory  Know that grammar is used to enhance or change the meaning of familiar phrases and sentences
Culture	Know that there are some similarities and differences between life in this country and other countries	Know that some people speak another language and have different routines	Know that people speak different languages in this country and other countries  Know some traditions in this country and other countries	Know that in Spain people speak Spanish  Know that social conventions are everyday polite behaviours	Know that a custom is an accepted way of behaving or doing something	Know some interesting details and aspects of the country or communities	Know similarities and differences between countries and communities  Know that language and culture are inextricably linked and shape each other over time